Died Aug. 25, 1927.
Age 56 years.

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon his love had given,
And though the body slumbers here,
The soul is safe in Heaven.

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air, Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that Star-Spangled

O'er the land of the free and the

Dear Litch:

By golly buddy, I sure hope this one will be delivered to you at your home. But from all I can gather, you are still over there. 85 Points are a hell of a lot of Points Bud, but of course no one knows it better than you fellows. Sure ~~if~~ hope you miss the Pacific route but as long as that fuckin' "Combat Wilson" is with you I don't suppose there is much chance. Litch, I have been home a week now and I'll tell you, it was the fastest week I've ever seen. Haven't had time to do any writing at all. No, I'm not discharged. I'm on a 21 day furlough. Have to go back to the hospital in Pa. (near Pittsburgh) for 3 months. They gave me hell for not going to the hospital sooner. But we were damn OK till ole Lard ass took over. I'll let you hear from me as soon as I go back up there and you write to me at my home address and they will forward it to me. I have boxed up a quart of hoatch (Seagrams 5) and will put it in the mail tomorrow with this letter. Hope you get it OK. But I've got my doubts. How are all the boys? Give them my regards and tell them I'm homesick as hell. Had a letter from Ray and he said that he and Russ may come back in the outfit. I surely hope he can make it. And Russ too.

How is Richey making out? Guess old Primo is still on the "stick". And of course old Gran Pop Lavell is doing pretty much as he dam well pleases I guess. Wonder if John is getting any snatch now. If any is within 20 miles of him he can sure as hell smell it out. Is Joe still getting his "Spam. yammy" from home? Tell Carl I'm still waiting for his dad's address and for him not to be in too big a hurry about getting back to that "hog meat" 'cause there aint a fockin' bit to be had. Hope Hanness is back in good shape now after the accident he had. By the way, I got that letter you forwarded to me. Thanks a million Pal. Guess Hamilton, Frazier, Dougherty, Elliott and Hogan are still on the Ball are they. They should be well up on the Point though. - Well Litch, I'm gonna sign off for now but will drop you a line soon as I get back to the Hospital. Tell Carl I'll drop him a line soon. Let me hear from you and above all, don't forget that visit. -

Goodbye for now and Good Luck to you and all the Boys

HANS H. JOENS

Hans H. Joens, 86, of 722 Main Ave., died Saturday at Mercy Hospital.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Shadduck-Cannon Funeral Home with the Rev. Stanley Peterson of Zion Lutheran Church officiating. Burial will be in Oakland Cemetery.

Friends may call after 2 p.m. today at the funeral home. Pallbearers will be Fay Anderson, Clifford and Raymond Eggers, William and Peter Gradert, and Elmer Schoel.

He was born in Clinton County on March 19, 1889, the son of Peter and Hanna Peters Joens. He was married to Carrie Stolk, who died in 1951. He married June Litscher on Feb. 20, 1957.

He farmed all his life, and moved to Clinton following his retirement in 1948. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church and the Loyal Order of the Moose.

Surviving are his widow; a son, Ralph, Clinton; and one grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his first wife, four brothers, and five sisters.

They are not lost who find the light of sun and stars and God.

Rest In Peace

*The Lord is my shepherd:
I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*

Note 50th

Anniversary

The Litschers, today, as they note their golden wedding anniversary with an open house next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher on their wedding day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher, Princeton, Iowa, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday Oct. 30, with an open house from 2-6 p.m., at Kernan's Supper Club, Princeton. A family dinner will also honor the couple.

Miss Irma Russell and Mr. Litscher were married Oct. 30, 1916, in the parsonage of St. John's Methodist Church, Davenport.

The couple farmed in the McCausland area. Mr. Litscher was with the Scott County Engineers, Davenport, for 30 years, retiring five years ago. Mrs. Litscher is a past Noble Grand of Echo-Rebekah Lodge.

Their children are Russell John, Lynwood, Calif.; and Mrs. Hans (June) Joens, Clinton. They have one grandson, Leo Russell Litscher, Lynwood, Calif.

Home From Hawaii Islands

PRINCETON -- Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher have returned from Hawaii where they spent three weeks with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Litscher and 15 year old grandson, Leo.

They received special recognition when they boarded the 707 United Airlines at Chicago when they were presented with a large decorated cake with "Welcome aboard", because it was their first flight and have been married 56 years.

All the islands were represented at the Hawaiian Culture Center they visited. They spent an evening with Don Ho at Polynesian Palace, Waikiki.

Hula dancing, leis and "home-grown" pineapples were special treats. Mrs. Litscher has her special lei in the refrigerator. It was presented by her family upon arrival and is made of white carnations and tied with red ribbons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Litscher

Hi Erma,

Got your letter yesterday and thought I'd better get on the ball and get some writing done. Hope yours are fine. Say hi to John for me. We've had an earthquake about 300 miles from here. I guess quite a few Arabs bit the dust. Waka I know I shouldn't say this but, I could care less if the whole damn bunch get shook to death. You couldn't imagine what these people are like. They are still living as they did 300 years ago and don't even try to progress. They even spit at you when you are down town and its all a guy can do to keep from belting one of 'em now and then.

Well I don't know what else to write, that I haven't already ~~and~~ written to my mom. But I thought I better write you a few lines. Say hi too Merna D.
for me if you her. OK you go right ahead and read my letters I write to mom cause I know you two are good "Pals". Ha Ha

Write when you have time, always glad to hear from home.

↳ Damned ole pen. Ha Ha

Sincerely John

Bye for now
